Race Format

Drivers will be divided into 4 groups

Feature grid is determined from heat points and Semi-main

This format is based up to a 40 car field. All drivers will be seeded into 4 groups. Drivers draw their first grid position by marble draw. Each heat includes two of the 4 groups. Each group will race two heats and the starting grid from the second heat will be an inversion of the first heat for each group. Each driver accumulates points depending on heat finish positions. The top 16 point scoring drivers in the heats qualify for the feature, highest points start on the front row. The remaining driver's race in the Semi-Main and the top four finishers move to the feature and will take up grids 17-20. The highest points start on the front row of the feature.

The number of laps in the heat races will be a minimum of 10 laps (depending on entries).
The number of laps in the semi-main will be 12 laps.

The maximum of number of cars in the final is 20. The winner of the 18 lap final will be the 2017 Ministock Stampede Winner

Schedule

Racing starts at 6pm. All competitors are required to be at the track by 4.30pm.
